"PET."

The sun is slowly sinking in the golden West
And I am fondly thinking of the girl I love best;
Her smile I can see though its only in a dream
As she smiled at me when the moon so brightly beamed.
I love the pale, soft light of the crescent moon above,
As it shines so bright on the one I dearly love,
It makes her blue eyes sparkle like the stars that shine on high,
It makes me love her better I'll love her 'till I die.
As her soft white arms round my neck entwined,
And a sweet voice that charms, says:
"Darling you're mine."
How can I help but love her and draw her to my heart
And pray God to never let us drift apart.
Oh my own sweet pet, I certainly do remember,
Nor will I ever forget, a night in sweet September;
I thought I loved you then, I knew naught of bliss
And it was only when you gave me your first kiss.
Tho' you may leave me it will grieve me to see you go away,
But I will try with many a sigh to meet you another day,
And I will think to the grave's very brink that you belong to me,
For I'd rather be dead than to another wed, unless that one was thee.
—Levingsworth.

A Reunion.

The third annual reunion will be held at Old Jenkins voting ground, Oct. 8, 1906, under the auspices of James Humphrey Post, G. A. R., Casey county, Ky. The program will be about as follows. The very best speakers before and afternoon. Campfires, etc., a museum consisting of war relics, such as were used during the civil war. Dinner for soldiers will be a sample of the soldiers' (dinner) on the march, consisting of crackers, bacon and coffee. Citizens are kindly requested to bring sufficient dinner for themselves and visiting friends. Grand parade and good order assured. All soldiers are invited; not only those who wore the blue, but those who wore the gray. Let all come and learn more of the great sacrifice that soldiers made for our flag and the principles it represents. Learn that we retained the precious gifts of our Washington and his followers and made our country the leading power of the world under the guiding hand of our Heavenly Father. By order of post.
JOHN RIGNEY.

Nathan Tudor, a farmer, residing near Silver Creek, Madison county, shot and killed his brother, Marion. The killing took place at the home of Mr. Tudor, where the dead man made his home. The trouble was said to have been over an insult offered Mrs. Tudor by Marion Tudor.
Indictment for wilful murder was returned at Manchester against Joe Walker and Green Clark, charged with conspiracy in the shooting of James Brooks near Manchester. Last May Walter Livingston and Joe Clark were sent to the penitentiary to serve 21 years for the same crime.

A Jellico dispatch says: The large crew of men at work removing the debris at Jellico discovered the body of another of the victims. The body, that of a man, was found near a tannery 500 yards from the scene of the explosion. It was lying in a creek, and was badly discolored that it could not be told whether it was that of a Negro or white man. It was split lengthwise, an arm and leg being torn away. It was not identified. Parts of what are believed to be other bodies were found. One of the badly injured victims, E. W. Bennett, died. The relief fund being gathered for Jellico sufferers has reached nearly $3,500.

A Young Mother at 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Twenty years of intense suffering from dyspepsia had entirely disabled her, until six months ago, when she began taking Electric Bitters, which have completely cured her and restored the strength and activity she had in the prime of life," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. Greatest restoration medicine on the globe. Sets Stomach, Liver and Kidneys right, purifies the blood, and cures Malaria, Biliousness and Weakness. Wonderful Nerve Tonic. Price 50c. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

A report of the State Department of Labor, just issued, states that there are now upward of 8,000,000 wage workers in labor unions, one-fourth of whom are in the United States. Great Britain and Germany each have nearly as many unionists as the United States, but the countries in which the movement is comparatively new—Austria, Hungary, Italy, etc.—are now making rapid progress.

An Awful Cough Cured.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, just like one with the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Busward, Brinkner, Ill. This remedy is for sale by Stanford Drug Co.

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan had been watching from a box opposite the speakers' stand the reception accorded her husband at New York. A flock of newspaper men rushed over and asked her what she thought of it all. Mrs. Bryan smiled, put her fingers to her lips and said:

"My husband does the talking."

Nothing to Fear.

Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world-wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup and can always be relied upon. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

The first heavy frosts of the season are reported in Nebraska and Iowa, where, however, the crops are considered too far matured to be in serious danger.

Late reports from the gulf-coast towns in the track of the storm show that the loss of life is comparatively small, most of the deaths having been among marines. All reports agree, however, that the property loss will be enormous, possibly aggregating $20,000,000. The loss to the cotton crop, according to Gov. Vardaman, of Mississippi, will amount to 200,000 bales in that State alone.

Money could not bring the world's greatest vocal and instrumental artists of Europe and America together for one performance in our city, yet on Friday evening, Oct. 5 at Alcorn's Opera House, all will be given an opportunity to hear them. The ingenuity of man has reached mechanical perfection in the reproduction of instrumental and vocal renditions to the extent that if your eyes were closed you could easily believe you were being entertained by the artists themselves. "HOUSES are in great demand at McKinney," said Cashier H. C. Baughman, of the McKinney Deposit Bank, the other day. "Every house in the town is occupied and I know of a number of families that would move to McKinney if they could get houses to live in," he added. The overall factory to be started there by Messrs. Rud McCormack and Jason Taylor, the McKinney Woolen Mills, the McKinney Canning Co. and the McKinney Roller Mills and the lumber industry have brought a number of people to the West End town and it is a pity that others who would locate there can't find shelter. Our moneyed people would do a good deed as well as make a good investment by buying land there and putting up a dozen or so cottages. Seems to us it would pay better than letting money lie idle in banks.

THE BELLE OF THE BLUE GRASS COUNTRY, by Mrs. H. I. Pittman, of St. Louis, is a charming love story beautifully told. It is a book of some 400 pages and every paragraph of it is full of interest. The scene is that part of the country between High Bridge and Harrodsburg and the time, just after the civil war. The old time Virginia Negro is an interesting character in the pretty story and the dialect of his race is particularly good. The book also contains some valuable history and altogether it is a fine contribution to the literary world. The authoress is a sister of Mrs. William Warren, of Boyle, and like her, is a most talented woman. If you have not read "The Belle of the Blue Grass Country" secure a copy from your newsdealer and give it a perusal. It will be time profitably and pleasantly spent.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE. -Representative W. D. Claybrooke, of Washington county, was here yesterday advertising for the Farmers' Institute which will be held at the court-house here Monday and Tuesday next, Oct. 8 and 9. The third lecturer has not been chosen yet. We hope our farmer friends will take an interest in the Institute and that as many as possible will attend the sessions of it.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.
By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

Sunday's dispatches from the gulf of New Orleans. Property losses are also mounting higher, the damage to pine timber alone being placed at $10-000,000.

Dear Sirs—It is a source of pleasure for me to permit you to use my picture before and after cured by "ZEMO," and to tell what "ZEMO" did for me. I doctored this case of (Acne) pimples for six years and spent several hundred dollars with physicians and specialists. The more salves and creams I used, the worse my face became. Mr. Ira Blackman recommended "ZEMO." Eight bottles entirely cured me, and I honestly believe
"ZEMO" is the best remedy in the world for any skin disease.
